TAFT GETS 17 KENTUCKY VOTES

President Wins Kentucky Contest Delegates Before National Committee.

Eleventh District's Two Votes Are Divided Between Colonel and Chief Executive—Leaders Seeking to Start "Dark Horse" Move.

Decisions by the Republican national committee so far:

Alabama	16 ..
Arkansas	16 ..
Florida	12 ..
Georgia	28 ..
Indiana	12 ..
Kentucky	17 1
Total	101 1

Chicago, June 12.—Seventeen of the eighteen contested delegates from Kentucky were awarded President Taft, while Colonel Roosevelt secured one before the Republican national committee here. This brings President Taft's total to 101 and that of Colonel Roosevelt 1. The fight was a spirited one.

The one contested Roosevelt delegate seated got his place in the Eleventh district.

The other Roosevelt delegate in Kentucky will come from the Fifth district, where the district convention agreed to divide its representation at Chicago between the two candidates.

All of the other delegates from Kentucky are now instructed for Taft. Taft awards by the national committee included the four delegates-at-large, headed by Senator W. O. Bradley; two delegates each from the First, Second, Fourth, Seventh, Eighth and Tenth districts and one from the Eleventh district.

Taft Wins Delegates-at-Large.
In the contest over the delegates-at-large the Taft men were seated by a vote of 38 to 11. Alfred T. Rogers, Senator La Follette's personal committee man from Wisconsin, voted with the Taft men.

In the First district fight the vote to seat the Taft men was 46 to 0, the Roosevelt men voting with the Taft men. In the Second the roll call showed a vote of 51 to 0. Messrs. Heney and Hadley did not vote. In the Fourth district the Roosevelt contestants were withdrawn and the Taft men seated unanimously. In the Seventh district the vote for the Taft men was 38 to 13 and in the Eighth 35 to 17.

On the latter vote Committee men Lowden of Illinois, Simpson of Maine and Brock of Vermont, usually aligned with the Taft men, voted with the Roosevelt men.

In the Tenth district fight the Taft men won, 52 to 0. In the Eleventh motion to seat the two Roosevelt men failed by 19 to 23, and then the delegation was unanimously divided between the Taft men and the Roosevelt men. This ended the day's work.

Dark Horse Talk On.

President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt are to be forced out of the presidential contest to make way for a compromise candidate if certain influential leaders, representing both factions, can bring about such a conclusion of the fierce internecine fight here.

Former Representative James E. Watson of Indiana and Senator Borah of Idaho, Taft and Roosevelt adherents respectively, agree on the necessity of such action. Watson now is organizing a third candidate movement.

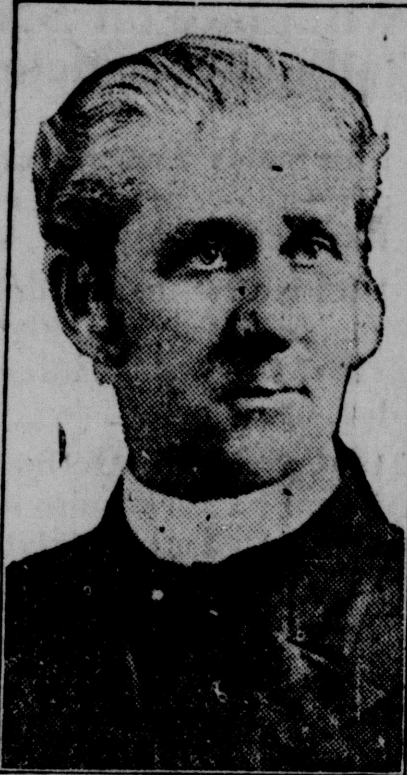

William Barnes, Jr., of New York is disposed to co-operate with Watson and Borah and swing New York's 70 uninstructed votes for Hughes.

Hadley to Battle for Chair.
Lines for the battle on the temporary chairmanship of the Republican convention were drawn tight here with the simultaneous arrival of Gov. Herbert S. Hadley of Missouri and William Barnes, Jr., of New York.

Governor Hadley is ready to go to the front as the candidate of the Roosevelt forces for the chair the instant such a course seems expedient, while Barnes entered the political arena, asserting with confidence that "The election of Senator Root as temporary chairman is absolutely assured."

There was a rumor, following the arrival of Mr. Barnes, that he had brought with him a dark horse presidential boom for Senator Root. It was reported that several of the eastern leaders had been interested in the movement and that the subject was being broached to some of the Republicans who are with Colonel Roosevelt in the fight.

BISHOP THIRKIELD

Rev. Wilbur P. Thirkield, the retiring president of Howard university, was made a bishop of the Methodist church recently and assigned to a southern district.

PREDICTS BOLT AT CHICAGO CONVENTION

WASHINGTON DELEGATE TO CHICAGO SAYS HE WILL BE ONE OF THE FIRST

Spokane, Wash., June 12.—Roy Clater of Spokane and W. L. Johnson of Colville, contesting Roosevelt delegates from Washington to the national republican convention, announced today prior to their departure for Chicago that they favored a bolt and a separate Roosevelt convention if the national committee continued to seat contested Taft delegates.

"If the national committee shows it is deciding contests on personal bias, Roosevelt will be justified in calling his delegates to follow him in a separate convention," said Slater. "In that case I will be among the first to follow."

CHANGE HIGH WIRE.

The high wire that was strung across First street near Hennepin avenue, has been changed to the south side of First street, between Hennepin and the alley.

PRINTERS ASSEMBLE HERE ON FRIDAY

FRIDAY AFTERNOON OF THIS WEEK IS CONVENTION DAY.

MAYOR WILL WELCOME VISITORS

President Hartman of Ben Franklin Club Will Deliver Address of Great Educational Value to Printers—All Are Invited and Many Have Signified Intention of Attending.

An exceptionally large per cent of the printers and publishers in this vicinity have sent word to the committee in charge that they intend to be present at the printers' Cost Congress, which takes place in Dixon on Friday afternoon of this week, and the local officers of the organization are busy making arrangements for their entertainment while in this city.

A most excellent program has been lined up and the afternoon of the convention will be full of good educational features for the benefit of the printing trade. Mr. Hartman, president of the Ben Franklin Club of America, has paid Dixon and the local organization an honor by consenting to be with us on this afternoon, and his talk on the "Cost System" will be the feature of the convention. There will be other addresses of almost equal value, however, and the printers look forward to an interesting afternoon.

Mayor Will Welcome Printers.

Mayor W. B. Brinton has been asked to deliver an address of welcome to the assembled members, and he has consented to do so. The meeting will take place in the city hall, beginning at 1 o'clock sharp.

All printers are cordially invited to be present at the meeting. It is being held for their benefit and it is hoped that all will take advantage of the opportunity to get well acquainted with the cost system, how it works and the benefit it will do to them.

CLOUD BURST NEAR SHERIDAN WYO.

MANY REPORTED DROWNED IN RUSHING WATERS — DIXON PEOPLE LIVING IN SHERIDAN, Sheridan, Wyo., June 12.—Special to Telegraph—Many persons were drowned today by a cloudburst that swept down Clear Creek canon near here and overwhelmed the town of Buffalo of 2000 persons.

The lower part of the city is inundated. The number of dead is unknown. A telephone operator gave the news of the disaster from Buffalo. She said the water was pouring into the windows and she was forced to flee, and then communication was shut off.

Parties of citizens of Sheridan are on the way to the scene in autos. The loss is said to be about a quarter of a million.

Note—Dixonites living in Sheridan are Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Colson. Mr. Clark formerly conducted a laundry in this city with Freeman Robinson and both Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Colson are daughters of C. Gonnerman of this city. The relatives here have had no word from Sheridan today and it is barely likely that any harm could have come to them through the cloud burst.

INSTALLED A NEW SODA FOUNTAIN

A fine new marble and flintish oak soda fountain was installed last evening at the Eastman confectionery parlors. A fine large mirror has lights after the mission style across the front and the room between the fountain proper and the counter is spacious and very sanitary and up to date. Last evening the proprietors were handicapped in serving customers because of the installing, but trade will be well looked after from now on.

BALLOON ASCENSION EVERY AFTERNOON

PROFESSOR RALSTON TO MAKE TRIP IN CLOUDS EVERY AFTERNOON.

STARTS FROM THE CITY MARKET

Loop the Looper at Royal Circus Created Terror in Audience by Accident to Bicycle—Quick Action Saved His Life.

An additional attraction has been secured by the Booster club, this being Prof. Ralston in a balloon ascension. Prof. Ralston comes with the very best of recommendations and carries one of the largest balloons in use today.

He has ascended in every state in the Union and holds the Arizona state record for altitude.

The first ascension was scheduled for this afternoon and every afternoon thereafter during the week, at Market Square, city lot.

Oscar V. Babcock, the fearless Loop the Looper at the Royal Circus, furnished excitement for the audience last night which made them hold their breath with terror.

Just as he was leaving the loop the chain on the bicycle caught and it looked as if a serious accident must result, but by quick thinking Oscar balanced the wheel and escaped with a slight bruise. He will appear as usual in every performance.

HOSPITAL TAG DAY WILL BE TOMORROW

HOSPITAL LADIES TO CANVASS CITY WITH TAGS ON THURSDAY.

THE TAG IS A BADGE OF HONOR

Public Hospital a Worthy Institution—All Should Wear a Tag—Money Is Needed and Will Be Wisely Expended.

Tomorrow is the day set apart for the Katherine Shaw Bethesda hospital, and everyone appearing upon the streets will be asked by one of the many gracious ladies who will patrol the city, to buy a tag. You may give what you please, but the more you give, the more you will please the ladies.

The hospital board, although they have had money left them recently, is really pressed for cash all the time, for the money is left them for specific purposes, such as building certain additions, etc., and they cannot use this money to buy the much needed equipment and to make improvements that do not come within the specified scope.

Your money can go to no more worthy institution than the public hospital, as you would realize if it had ever been your lot to need its help yourself, and he who donates to the ladies tomorrow may rest assured that every cent will be used wisely and well and will go to humanity as a whole.

When the ladies offer you a tag, take it and give them what you feel you can afford. The tag is in a sense a badge of honor and everyone should wear one tomorrow.

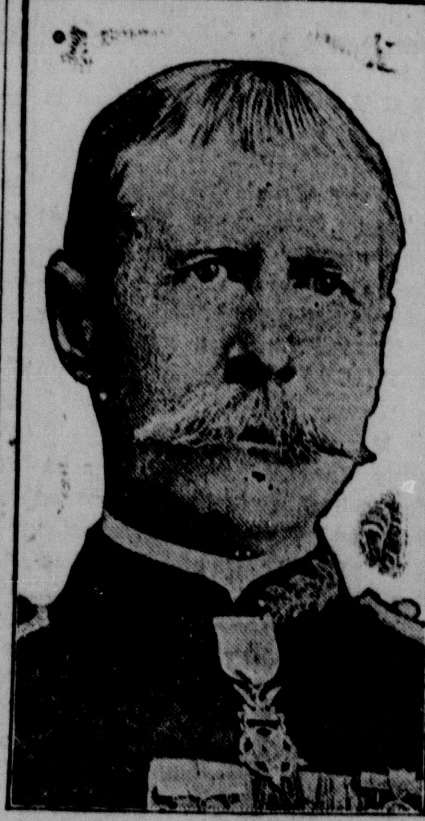

TONIGHT IS MOOSE NIGHT.

Tonight will be Moose night and the many members of this growing organization will be there in force. They are a bunch of good fellows, and will certainly liven things up to-night.

MIXED ON THE STREET.

A young man from Dixon and two strangers created some excitement on First street last night about 10 o'clock by having a little fistie encounter. The tall stranger was handed a jolt that landed him on his back in the middle of the street. The police soon scattered the crowd, the main actors having effected their escape.

SUPERVISORS VISIT THE COUNTY HOME

BOARD HELD A SHORT SESSION THIS MORNING AND THEN ADJOURNED UNTIL 3 P. M.

MADE THE TRIP IN AUTOS

Judges and Clerks and Places of Election Not All Settled—Hamilton Bridge Paid For—Salary of Board of Review Fixed at $5 Per Day.

The board of supervisors met this morning at 10 o'clock, read the minutes of the previous session of yesterday and adjourned and prepared to leave in a fleet of automobiles for a day at the county home as guests of Superintendent Wicher.

The day at the county home is an annual event with the supervisors, and the dinner is the event of the day, for Clyde Wicher is a most hospitable host and his guests are not permitted to do anything but enjoy themselves while they are under his jurisdiction.

The county fathers intended to return at three this afternoon and reconvene.

Establish Salary.

Yesterday afternoon the various committees made their reports. The fees and salary committee voted to pay the members of the board of review $5 for every day of actual service during the year. This is no change, in the amount paid the members, but a new ruling makes it necessary for the board to fix the salaries.

The bridge committee, among other things, reported that the Hamilton bridge was finished and advised the board that the county owed the Clinton Bridge company $845 as their share of the cost of construction, and the amount was ordered paid.

The various supervisors had not completed their lists of judges and clerks of election and this was to be finished today.

Tomorrow's session should complete the work of the board for this meeting.

MANY ATTENDED MRS. CATON'S FUNERAL

ALASKA CITY IS BURIED IN ASHES

Word From Stricken Town Reveals Horror of Volcano's Eruption.

U. S. ACTS TO HELP SUFFERERS

Drinking Water Is Polluted—Revenue Cutter Nearby Rescues Hundreds as Lava Begins to Spout—Appeal Made for Aid.

Fairbanks, Alaska, June 12.—Persons arriving from the south bring reports of heavy cannonading in the foothills of the Alaska range, and it is supposed the volcanoes are in action. The sounds come from the vicinity of Mount Hayes. Ashes are falling here and the sun is obscured.

Buried Under Foot of Ashes.

Kodiak, Alaska, June 9, via Tug to Seward, June 12.—Kodiak and Woody Island villages are buried under a foot of ashes as a result of the eruption of Kalmi volcano, beginning Thursday afternoon and lasting 48 hours.

No lives have been lost, but many other settlements near the volcano must have suffered indescribably.

The revenue cutter Manning was in port here when the eruption began and furnished refuge for all the inhabitants of the town, 500 men, women and children, doubtless saving many lives.

Ship Serving Rations.

The Manning is now serving distilled water and government rations to the destitute people, the water supply having been polluted and springs filled with ashes.

As soon as the fall of ashes, sand and hot pumice stone began, the officers of the Manning ordered every one in Kodiak and nearby villages to board the ship.

For more than forty hours the people were huddled together in the darkness of midnight. Saturday morning it grew lighter, and the Manning worked out of the narrow channel, and headed for the open sea. It had not proceeded far when the pall lifted, and it returned to Kodiak.

U. S. Acts to Help Sufferers.

Washington, June 12.—The federal government is moving swiftly for the relief of the volcano sufferers. Acting Secretary Curtis of the treasury department discussed relief measures with President Taft, and Delegate Wickersham of Alaska asked congress for an emergency fund.

The change in time of meeting was necessary in order to secure the services of the band.

The parade will form on Second street and will go west as far as Madison avenue, where it will turn north to First street, going east on First to Galena avenue and south on Galena to Second street.

The members owning automobiles are asked to come and run their machines in the parade.

RAISE CHICKENS IN THE WEST.

The first fry sold for 32 cents a pound but they are cheaper now. Mrs. Shaw states that they are the kind of fried chicken that melts in your mouth.

Attend Rebekah Meeting.

Mrs. Hattie Ebersole, Miss Emma Kentner, S. W. Eakin and Dr. Robbins drove to Oregon Tuesday to attend a district meeting of the Rebekah lodge.

Reception Much Enjoyed.

The reception given for Rev. Crissman, the newly called pastor of the Presbyterian church, was a success in every particular. The reception was given under the auspices of the Candlelighters, which alone is vouchsafing for the success of almost any undertaking of this nature.

There were over 300 guests present and the program was carried out as printed in the Telegraph. In the absence of O. H. Brown, who was absent unavoidably, Attorney Mark C. Keller gave a splendid address on behalf of Dixon, welcoming the new pastor to the city. The music was very fine, Mesdames Read and Edwards and Miss Lorna Dement each rendering several solos with their wonted sweetness and skill. Rev. Crissman replied to the many speeches of welcome and everyone enjoyed his remarks, touching as they did warm echoes of good will and good fellowship. The Candlelighters served delicious refreshments and the evening proved a happy one and everyone present trusts that R. V. Crissman's stay here will be pleasant and far-reaching in good work.

Crabtree-Bovey Wedding.

This evening at 6:30 o'clock Miss Ruth, youngest daughter of Mrs. Annie Crabtree, and William F. Bovey, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Bovey of Pine Creek, were united in marriage at the stately Crabtree home, 322 Depot avenue. It was a simple, yet withal a very beautiful wedding, witnessed by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends.

Oak leaves, pink and white roses, marguerites and smilax were the beautiful decorations, the color tones being pink and white. The ceremony was performed in the deep bay window with a background of oak leaves, roses and marguerites, the effect gained from the many suspended baskets holding the roses and marguerites being exquisite.

The couple was unattended. The bride wore a dainty white lingerie gown of embroidery and lace and carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley. Smith's three piece orchestra played Mendelssohn's wedding march, with Miss Katherine Miller of Franklin Grove at the piano. The orchestra also played throughout the evening.

After the ceremony a wedding collation was served in the dining room, where the colors were pink and white, roses and smilax. The guests were graciously served by Mrs. John Dille, assisted by Miss Katherine Hauser.

The wedding unites two highly esteemed young people of Dixon, the bride being the youngest daughter of the late honored Judge Crabtree, and Mr. Bovey also comes from one of the old families. The groom is a general favorite and possesses a genial, debonaire manner which endears him to his hosts of friends. He has for the last few years taught school and his pupils were his friends.

The bride is a very sweet, unaffected young woman, whose winning personality and beautiful disposition will smooth the rough places on life's pathway.

After the wedding luncheon and congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Bovey left for a wedding trip, destination left for a wedding trip, destination cities east will be visited. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Bovey will reside with Mr. and Mrs. Bovey Sr. for some time at the fine large farm in Pine Creek and later will probably make their home in St. Paul. With scores of other friends the Telegraph extends sincere congratulations.

Wm. Brenner of Moline, an intimate friend of the groom, was present, and Mrs. John Flint Dille of Chicago also was in attendance. Just a year ago Miss Phoebe Crabtree was united in marriage with John Flint Dille, at a beautiful home wedding.

Dinner for Miss Reede.

On last Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto E. Strock, 615 East Chamberlain street, a most delightful evening dinner was enjoyed by a small party of friends. The occasion was doubly enjoyable, as it celebrated the birthday of the guest of honor, Miss Marie E. Reede, and the anniversary of the wedding of the host and hostess.

The beautiful home was very tastefully decorated in green and white, ferns and roses being used in carrying out the effect. At the conclusion of the delicious dinner the host, on behalf of the friends present, presented Miss Reede with a hand-painted vase, after which the company adjourned to the parlors, where they were royally entertained with vocal and instrumental selections.

At a late hour the guests departed, wishing the guest of honor, host and hostess happiest congratulations of the day and a most sincere hope that many more happy evenings will be spent in the same home and under like conditions.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. C. Columbus Buzard, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin S. Schillberg, George E. Beede and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Senneff.

Motored From Chicago.

Miss Clara Rink returned last evening from a few weeks' visit in Chicago. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Hackett who with her guests will visit her for a short time. They made the trip in the Hempstead car. Miss Meisenbaugh and Mrs. Knauer of Mendota are guests at the Rink home.

Birthday Party.

Miss Edna Shank of Hennepin avenue entertained the members of the Inquisitive club last evening with a theatre party at the Family theatre, and afterward with luncheon at the Eastman ice cream parlors, where a beautiful birthday cake was a theme of conversation. All the guests report a very happy evening.

For Son and Wife.

Mrs. W. T. Brink will entertain Saturday evening for her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brink, who returned Sunday from their honeymoon spent at Necedah lodge near Grand Detour.

Don't Fail to Read It.

Miss Minerva and William Green Hill. His pranks will make you laugh, and he is such a lovable little fellow is William that you are loath to leave him when the charming story is finished. The bride will be gowned in white mull over white satin and carry brides roses. After the ceremony a wedding supper will be served. The young couple will not take a wedding trip but will make their home at Upham Place followed by the best wishes of many friends. Mr. Lush is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Barney W. Lush and is in business with his father. His bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Cheney, is a young woman possessing qualities which make for her many friends, who wish her every happiness.

Four girls of the E. R. B. Sunday school class of St. Paul's Lutheran church, all daintily gowned, entered the parlors first and then the little ribbon bearer, Ralph Edinger, cousin

THE TELEGRAPH HELPS SOME

GRAFTON H. SELF, TWIN FALLS, IDAHO.

Here is a picture of a former Dixon boy who lives a great way from here, but who knows as much about what is going on here as the rest of us, and the reason is, he reads the Telegraph.

Grafton H. Self, of Twin Falls, Idaho, left here on September 29th, three years ago, and before he had been away many days he decided that if he was to "stick" out there he must know a little more about what was going on in Dixon, therefore he wrote for the Telegraph and since then he has been perfectly happy. Mr. Self is doing exceedingly well here, but who knows as much about what is going on here as the rest of us, and the reason is, he reads the Telegraph. He is interested in a fruit orchard there and is now having plans made for the erection of a fine concrete blacksmith shop. Mrs. Self is conducting a very thriving millinery establishment. Since settling in Twin Falls the Selfs have bought a very pretty residence. We wish them all the success in the world in their new home and trust the Telegraph shall always continue to bring them the best of tidings from their old home.

DEMENTTOWN

She's not such a bad looking burg when she's decorated up.

Did that tapir sleep in your garden last night? Our idea of no kind of a pet to have running around the yard is a tapir, even if it is city broke.

They ought to chase the tapir through the Katzenjammer house for running away that way.

We seem to have tapir on the brain this morning, don't we.

Kewanee, Ill.—Nels Christianson dropped dead here Tuesday while mowing a lawn.

We've decided that mowing the lawn is a dangerous pastime, and should not be indulged in.

Congratulations, Bill.

The fellow who started that idea about a man being shorter at night than he is in the morning is wrong. Experience has taught us that it is just the other way around.

We hope Sterling will pardon us if we borrow their crowds for the rest of the week.

It's a cinch the mosquitoes don't bother the alligator girl much.

Theodore Sees the Carnival.

An evening or two ago little Theodore Lloyd came to town with his father to see the carnival. To avoid being lost in the crowd, he asked permission to keep a hand in his father's coat pocket. Later he went in to see the snakes. Pa doesn't like snakes and staid outside. When Theodore came out the tour was resumed. Soon he found himself alone, but espied his guide near. He ran up to his progenitor and chuckled.

"Say, Pop, I had my hand in my own pocket and was leading myself around."

FINDS A BIG TOOTH.

Sterling Gazette: The largest specimen of Mammoth tooth ever found in this part of the state was unearthed in Christ Miller's pasture on the banks of the creek by Charles Cortright. The tooth weighs four pounds and two ounces and measures across its grinding surface nearly eight inches in width. From the top of the tooth to the bottom part of what roots are left is nearly eight inches. As most of the roots are broken off close to the surface, it is probable that the tooth was fully twelve or fourteen inches from the top of the grinding surface to the bottom of the roots when the owner was on earth.

Is Well Preserved.

The tooth is largely petrified and in an excellent state of preservation. Mr. Cortright brought it to town today and placed it on exhibition in Apple Brothers' saloon. He is now searching the vicinity in which it was found in the hope of unearthing some other parts of the prehistoric animal.

CUTICURA OINTMENT HEALED BAD SORE

Scraped Flesh Off Bone Below Knee.
Suffered So She Couldn't Sleep.
Also Says: "I Believe Cuticura
Soap is the Best Soap Made."

"Some time ago I was coming up some steps when the board crushed under me like an egg shell, and my right limb went through to the knee, and scraped the flesh off the bone just inside and below the knee. I neglected it for a day or two, then it began to hurt me pretty badly. I put balsam on it to draw out the poison, but when I had used it a week, it hurt so badly that I changed to Cuticura Ointment. That made it smart and burn so badly that I couldn't use it any more, and that was the fourth week after I was hurt. Then I began to use Cuticura Ointment for the sore. It stopped hurting immediately and began healing right away. It was a bad looking sore before Cuticura Ointment healed it, and I suffered so I couldn't sleep from two days after I fell until I began using Cuticura Ointment.

"Cuticura Soap is the best soap I ever saw. I have used all kinds of soap for washing my face, and always it would leave my face smarting. I had to keep a lotion to stop the smart, no matter how expensive a soap I used. I find at last in Cuticura Soap a soap that will clean my face and leave no smarting, and I do not have to use any lotion or anything else to ease it. I believe Cuticura Soap is the best soap made."

(Signed) Mrs. M. E. Fairchild, 205 Lafayette St., Wichita, Kan., May 8, 1911.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are for sale throughout the world, but to those who have suffered much, lost hope and are without faith in any treatment, a liberal sample of each together with 32-p. booklet will be mailed free, on application. Address: Poter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 224, Boston.

A LITTLE LECTURE BY

"Isn't wholly the younger sister's fault. It never is entirely the person's own fault when he or she is spoiled. In this case it's partly the older sister and partly the mother or father to blame."

The older sister went to a business college straight from grammar school, or if she was fortunate to go to high school, she had to wear old clothes and scrimp and go without right and left because her father was the only wage earner in the family then, and the ordinary man's wages are not supposed really to support a family under present day conditions. If she managed to stay the whole four years, she was probably graduated in a white waist and linen skirt, and didn't go to the class dance because she couldn't have a pretty gown.

Younger sister, on the contrary, goes through high school as a matter of course and probably goes to college, too. Nor does she scrimp and go without things. By reason of the contributions to the family purse now made by older sister, or perhaps by two or three older sisters, or brothers, financial conditions in the family are much improved, and younger sister does everything her wealthier friends do. She takes vacation trips, she goes to all the functions; she has pretty gowns and all the expensive little accessories such as shoes and stockings to match. She says she "must have them," and big sister remembering her own pangs over the lack of such things, is the first to agree as to the stern necessity for them.

And so it goes. All that the older sisters lacked the younger must have. And because it is given her so freely she soon takes it as a matter of course.

Perhaps she even looks down upon the older sister. Why not? She never went to college; why she didn't even go through school. Her grammar is often shameful. Besides younger sister is apt to be much prettier than her older sister.

You see, the older girl was growing up at a time when very frugal fare and hard work were the order of the day and most of the good looks she did have she has lost in the bad air and confinement of the office. Whereas younger sister's years of development were passed in much more propitious circumstances and she has never imperiled her good looks by overwork. Can you blame her then for feeling the superiority that any pretty girl is conscious of feeling?

My friends, you may think I am simply generalizing and using my imagination in this matter, but I am not learn to think they can have ever brother right in this neighborhood, who wore silk stockings and was generally a dude at school, while his older sister worked her heart out almost entirely supporting the family. I am thinking of a younger sister, whose mother slaves to make her the prettiest gowns that are displayed at the high school dances, while the older sister, who works ten hours a day, does her own sewing or wears cheap ready made clothes.

Of course it is right that younger children should have all the opportunities that better financial conditions make possible. But they should not be taught to think they have every luxury their companions afford. And most emphatically of all, they should be taught to realize and be grateful for all that their older brothers and sisters have done for them, and done without themselves.

WILD TAPIR WAS CAPTURED TODAY

ANIMAL WHICH ESCAPED FROM STREETS, IS AGAIN IMPRISONED.

Residents of Dixon who have been venturing into the open only with fear and trembling and with the expectation of being set upon by the South American tapir which was at large all day yesterday, may breathe freely now and walk the streets with fearless abandon, for the beast is again behind the bars.

His tapirship was located about 10 o'clock this morning near the Chas. H. Ruggles home on Highland avenue. The residents of the neighborhood at once notified Sergeant Gaffney and he informed the animal keeper of the show, who went with a force of men and effected the capture of the animal.

He is grafting some of the twigs on other trees in his orchard and hopes in the course of a few years to make his fortune.

ATTACKS SYSTEM OF CAREING FOR POOR

OFFICER OF STATE CHARITIES COMMISSION ADVOCATES REFORM IN COUNTY FARMS

MANY "PAUPERS" HAVE PROPERTY

Often Those Cared For by County and State Are Well-to-Do But Are Unloaded On the Taxpayers by Selfish Families Who Should Be Forced to Care for Them.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 12.—Speaking on the solution of the problems of Rural Public Relief at the Conference of the National Association of Poor Relief Officials at Cleveland, Ohio, today, A. L. Bowen, Executive Secretary of the Illinois State Charities Commission advocated full publicity of the accounts of and lists of the overseer of the poor. He favored also the publication of the names of those in the county farms, the strict enforcement of the pauper acts which provides that relatives, when able, shall care for their poor and a general campaign of education to show the public how the public funds are criminally wasted and corruptly expended under the guise of charity.

Mr. Bowen also suggested annual conferences of charities in every community of more than 5,000 whose function it shall be to keep people informed on the best methods of relieving distress.

He said that in Illinois the state of public ignorance on the subject of poor relief distribution, borders on benighted darkness. He described the value of the overseer in the local political machine and how he operates to corrupt the electorate.

"He buys groceries, meats, coal and other supplies" said the speaker, "from the local political merchant and by means of a peculiar system of orders permits that merchant to short weigh the pauper and over weigh the tax payer."

"In old Roman days" he said, "the masters provided for the masses and the rabble free exhibitions in the arena. Today we distribute too them free groceries, free coal, free milk, free ice boxes and the life without discrimination or investigation. For fear one worthy may be overlooked we are asked to excuse the further pauperization of the 100 unworthy."

Speaking of conditions in Illinois he said that the states attorney who should institute suit to compel relatives to support one of their number would be looked upon "as a curiosity." "Our county farms and state institutions" he said, "are full of inmates who might be cared for at home. May of them have property, many of them have pensions, yet because they are a trifle hard to get along with, their children or relatives consign them to an indulgent and merciful but very easy state without a single qualm of conscience."

To the lack of family pride which prevails in this country he ascribed part of this free disposition to unload upon the public these who should and could be cared for in private homes. "The publication" said he, "of all the facts about the distribution of public money for poor relief in any community would effect many cures so speedily that the language of the quack advertising doctor would fail of adequate terms to describe the miracle."

The speaker was of the opinion that no harm would befall the worthy poor by such publicity. "They seldom make their wants known directly," he said. "Let the burden of finding the worthy ones rest upon the public. If it be keen to its duty it will permit no suffering. I have no fears of the worthy suffering through a real, honest system of publicity, but it will drive to cover hordes of pests, parasites and barnacles who, in the absence of light, have their arms up to the elbow in the public treasury."

Proved His Chivalry.

Visitor—"You say that old reprobate over there used to be one of the politest men in town? I suppose he'd give up his seat in a street car to a woman." Native—"Polite? Say, stranger, that man gave up his seat in heaven for a woman."—Satire.

Her Explanation.

Queen Elizabeth was very much provoked when she found that her cousin, Mary queen of Scots, had been put to death. "I can't help it if people will lose their heads at critical moments," her majesty petulantly exclaimed. "As far as I am concerned, the occurrence was entirely accidental."

Your wardrobe may need attention and a few additions—an afternoon gown or possibly some frocks adaptable to the vacation you have planned.

BLACK SNAKES MAKE FEAST ON CHICKENS

Hanover Journal: A few days ago Mrs. Jessie Nesbitt, who had her chicken brooder out in the yard went to see how her young chicks were getting along, and when she looked in she let out a series of yells and whoops which brought her husband running. He found two black snakes in the brooder. One reptile was over six feet long and the other between five and six feet in length. One of the snakes had swallowed seven of the three weeks' old chicks.

TWO LITTLE BOYS WANT TO VISIT HERE

Little Fellows at Glenwood Manual Training School Want to Come Home For Weeks Visit, Which They May Do If Anyone Will take Care of Them.

Do you want to gladden the hearts of two little boys who are homesick for Dixon, and whose yearnings for a few days here have prompted them to write to Judge Robert H. Scott asking him to let them come back for a week. If you do, here is your chance:

Judge Scott,
Dear Sir—
Glenwood Manual Training School,
Glenwood, Ill., June 2, '12
We would like to come to Dixon for a visit and our superintendent told us that we would have to write to the Judge that sent us out to Glenwood to write him a letter saying that it would be alright and we would be in safe hands. Our Superintendents address is Leo A. Phillips Glenwood, Ill. Yours truly,
Frank and Wilbur Coakley
Glenwood, Ill.

Anyone who is charitably disposed may call Judge Scott and inform him that they will take care of the lads for a week. The boys are willing to work their way.

PLIGHT OF LORIMERISM.

Rockford Star: An Illinois congressman, writing to a friend under the seal of confidence, says, "tremendous pressure has been brought to bear upon Lorimer to induce him to resign, but he refuses to accept the advice of friends who have no desire to go down with him."

Lorimer expects to retain his seat through the power of the interests of which he is a tool. The friends of the interests in the senate will try to save him, but they may not be able to save themselves.

It is significant that no senator who voted to give Lorimer a clean bill of health has been re-elected. Hale, Scott, Kean, Bulkeley, Depew, Piles, Dick, Burrows, Carter and Flint who voted for Lorimer, retired March 4. Three—Paynter, Bailey and Guzenheim—announced retirement after their Lorimer vote, and two—Foster of Louisiana and Cullom of Illinois—have been beaten in primaries. Crane has announced that he will not seek to be re-elected. Jones of Washington "floundered" on Lorimer in committee, and the people of his state are in an uproar.

Surely Lorimer like Lorimerism blights all it touches.

LETTER FROM ELLA WHEELER WILCOX

J. A. LLOYD OF THIS CITY RECEIVES MISSIVE AND POEM FROM FAMOUS WOMAN.

Editor Evening Telegraph:

A letter from England has just reached me which may be of interest to your readers. Enclosed with the letter were two poems of latest date, beautifully printed on large cards. Following is the letter with one of the poems:

Langham Hotel, London, May 25.

Mr. J. A. Lloyd,
Dixon, Ill.

Dear Sir:

Your letter came to me here, where we are spending two months. I am quite willing that you and Mr. Ellis should write about me as you desire.

Cordially,

ELLA WHEELER WILCOX.
The Englishman.

Born in the flesh and bred in the bone,

Some of us harbor still

A New World pride; and we flaunt, or hide

The spirit of Bunker Hill.

We claim our place, as a separate race,

Or a self-created clan;

Till there comes a day when we like to say,

"We are kin of the Englishman."

For under the front that seems so cold,

And the voice that is wont to storm,

We are certain to find a big, broad mind

And a heart that is soft and warm.

And he carries his woes in a lordly way,

As only the great souls can;

And it makes us glad when in truth we say,

"We are kin of the Englishman."

He slams his door in the face of the world,

If he thinks the world too bold.

He will even curse; but he opens his purse

To the poor, and the sick, and the old.

He is slow in giving to woman the vote,

And slow to pick up her fan;

But he gives her room in an hour of doom,

And dies—like an Englishman.

Explanatory of Mrs. Wilcox' letter, it may be recalled that Mrs. Olyette Ellis was Mrs. Wilcox' teacher, a fact I learned from Mrs. Wilcox herself. Mrs. Ellis never having mentioned it to me during our correspondence. The latter is a talented woman, and author of "Autumn Leaves," a book of poems containing many beautiful thoughts.

In a former letter to the Telegraph, descriptive of a visit to the home of Mrs. Wilcox, I did not use all my material, as Mrs. Wilcox gave me much other information. Having made the acquaintance of Mrs. Ellis through the famous "Obituary," I later conceived the plan of writing a joint article with Mrs. Ellis. To this that lady has cheerfully consented. Consulting the subject of our proposed sketch, I received the above reply.

Mrs. Wilcox spoke highly of her old teacher as a writer, and said it was her delight, after writing a poem, to draw pictures for it. This accounts for the fact that when she wrote that obituary for Wheeler and me, she also sketched our single grave with its "beautiful twin concrete headstones, purchased of Shears & Sawbuck." It should be explained that this economizing of space in the graveyard was not prompted by parsimony of this philanthropic poetess. Wheeler had ordered the obituary for me. I countermanded the order, and directed that some kind of doggerel be fixed up for him. The poetess buried us both, for she is fond of quiet. While discussing the "Hash" fight, and looking at pictures of the participants, Mrs. Wilcox laughed and said, "You must have had lots of fun."

FLOATING PALACES

Americans desirous of escaping from the rigors of a northern winter to sunny southern climes, can now have hotel comforts on the voyage. A new cruiser built for this traffic has bunkless staterooms—bedsteads taking the place of the familiar shelf; a window in every stateroom; a thirty-foot swimming pool, with artificially warmed water, and a two story dining room with artificially cool air when that is desired. Another steamer provides a ballroom and a gymnasium for the amusement of passengers.

NICE HAS A DRAGON

Strange Sea Monster Causes Panic in Italian City.

Residents of La Turbie Are Badly Frightened and No One Dares to Venture on Highways Without an Armed Escort.

Nice.—They say it is about two metres long and at least thirty-five centimeters broad, with enormous jaws well furnished with dentistry, but what kind of an animal it is no one knows. For the past several days the residents of La Turbie have been living in deadly terror of it. A search was organized, but as yet only two persons have met the "thing" face to face.

About 11 o'clock in the morning recently a boy was passing through the quarter known as "Les Routes," carrying a dejeuner to his father, who is employed in a quarry. Suddenly an animal, stranger than any he had ever seen, appeared in his path.

The boy ran, but so did the animal. Just as he was about to be caught the boy climbed on to a block of stone. The animal managed to get on its hind feet and was about to grasp the boy in its terrible jaws when the automobile which runs between La Turbie station and the Mont-Agel golf course approached.

Frightened at the noise, the "wild beast" took fright and fled. The boy shows marks on his breast which he says were made by the animal when it was reaching for him. He also declares the animal was covered with huge scales.

A posse was organized immediately and started in pursuit, but not even a trace of the animal was seen. Yesterday a laborer at the quarry says he found the strange thing stretched across the Mont-Agel road. The man was on his way to work, and upon seeing the animal he ran all the way back to the village. He swore he would never go to the quarry again.

La Turbie residents who do not believe in material manifestations of the supernatural say that the animal is a crocodile which has perhaps escaped from a menagerie. And why not, they declare, "Marselles had its tiger!"

MAY DEPORT "OLD MAIDS"

Increasing Number of Spinsters Alarms Mothers—Home Neglect Is Cause.

London.—The question of how to diminish England's rapidly increasing crop of old maids has become vital here and hardly a week passes without a lecture on the subject.

Miss Josephine Knowles, England's foremost expert in this line, has just held a lecture in which she severely criticized English parents, whom she accused of injuring their daughter's prospects by caging them up at home, simply catering for them in the way of food, clothes and necessities, but without allowing them as much as sixpence weekly for pin money, and giving them no training or education that would make them fit either to marry or to make their own living.

She strongly advocated emigration of girls on a large scale, rather enjoying the shock this gave her audience, and declaring that her suggestion was based on sound common sense as long as there was a large superfluity of women in England while men in the colonies were clamoring for wives. At the end her argument conquered and a society is soon to be formed to arrange marriages between suitable parties in England and her dominions.

"PUPPY LOVE" NOT FOR SHOW

Lecturer of San Jose (Cal.) W. C. T. U. Would Not Permit Little Ones to See "Silly Antics."

San Jose, Cal.—All the world loves a lover—except Mrs. Florence Lake, state lecturer of W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Lake was one of the speakers at the county W. C. T. U. convention at Morgan Hill and was discussing the environment and associations of children. Among other pointed features of her address was a paragraph in which she said:

"Children should not be in the same house with silly lovers and newly married people."

Mrs. Lake believes that "puppy love" has no good place in the home of a child, and therefore the very young should not, with the natural imitativeness, be allowed to see the antics of lovers and newly weds.

Few Don'ts to Girls.

Milwaukee, Wis.—For girls who are young and inexperienced, Mrs. Rose Happerath, aged sixteen, compiled a series of admonitions, shortly before she filed suit for a divorce from Charles Happerath, a wealthy restaurant owner, who is much her senior. Eight months of wedded life, Mrs. Happerath said, provided the basis for the following don'ts:

"Don't marry until you are twenty."

"Don't marry a man who is twenty years your senior."

"Don't marry a man who keeps a bevy of girls in his employ."

"Don't marry any man until you have known him at least a year."

"Don't fail to have a few understandings before the knot is tied, if you would avoid misunderstandings afterward."

"After my divorce is granted," said Mrs. Happerath, "I am going back to school and learn a few more things."

THE VALUABLE LEMON.

The lemon is a palatable medicine and one that is especially good for the blood. For thick, sluggish blood and an inactive liver, the juice of a lemon in a glass of water every morning on rising is a most beneficial tonic. The lemon juice should be taken without sugar and drunk at least half an hour before eating, to give it time to be absorbed into the system before anything is taken into the stomach.

As a drink, hot or cold lemonade still stands first on the list of drinks. In combination with other foods and fruits it is also both refreshing and stimulating. A few tablespoonsful of lemon juice in barley water is a splendid drink for the sick.

There is a zest about a dish of lemon jelly to be served with different meats (fish and poultry), which is especially pleasing.

When serving bananas and oranges, fruits that are nearly always on the market, a bit of lemon juice squeezed over the fruit brings out the flavor of each.

In preparing frozen dishes, like raspberry or grape ice or ice cream, a tablespoon of lemon juice not only enhances the flavor, but makes the color more beautiful; a desirable addition to any dish.

Lemon juice and olive oil, with salt and cayenne pepper, is a simple and easily assimilated salad dressing for many vegetables and fruits.

As a garnish for fish, cut in dainty slices or in eighths, there is no prettier decoration. If combined with a touch of parsley.

Lemon Sauce for Puddings.—Stir until well mixed, a tablespoonful of flour and a half cup of sugar; add a cup of boiling water and cook until smooth; add a tablespoonful of butter, two of lemon juice and a little of the rind. Pour over the well-beaten yolk of an egg.

EXPERT LAUNDERING.

There are people, and those who should know better, who labor under the impression that laundry work is merely a matter of muscle, and that any one with the physical strength and little intelligence will make a good laundress. There was never a more mistaken idea, as we have learned by sad experience.

A successful laundress must be an educated woman, something of a chemist, a good fair amount of judgment and a conscientious, painstaking worker.

There is knowledge to be used in the choice of soap and starches, in the removing of spots and stains.

To do the right kind of laundry work it is necessary to know how to wash the most delicate colors without fading them.

Most colors may be retained by a salt or vinegar bath, a tablespoonful to a quart of water. A general rule is to immerse all light colors in salt water and dark colors in vinegar.

Blue is a delicate color, yet any shade may be permanently fixed by being soaked before it is laundered for half an hour in eight or ten quarts of water in which is dissolved an ounce of sugar of lead.

Green is another frail color; a lump of alum in the rinse water will set this color.

There are three important things to consider in washing colored clothes, after the treatment which sets the color. First, they should never be washed in boiling hot water; second, soap should never be rubbed on, but always dissolved, and third, they should always be dried as quickly as possible in the shade and ironed, when possible, before they are quite dry, and on the wrong side.

If a garment is only slightly soiled, the rubbing and sousing in the soapy water will cleanse it, then the rinsing should be very thorough. The whole process should be done as quickly as possible.

The most careful washer may ruin the result of her work by careless ironing.

To be a good ironer means much practice and infinite patience.

VANDERLIP ON STAND

Clearing House Head Admits $50,000,000 Check Tax.

Financier Offers Apologies for Anything "Untrue" He May Have Been Guilty of Saying.

New York, June 12.—With the resumption here of the money trust investigation by the Pujos committee of the house of representatives, Chairman Pujos made public a letter he had written to Frank A. Vanderlip, chairman of the New York clearing house committee. The letter was an answer to one from Mr. Vanderlip, in which Mr. Vanderlip charged that the disposition of the committee has been to limit the evidence.

Mr. Vanderlip then was called and questioned concerning the collection of out-of-town checks by clearing house banks, which, it has been alleged, net them a profit of $50,000,000 a year.

Mr. Vanderlip said he thought it was perfectly proper for the banks to bind themselves to impose a tax on the checks. He added that he did not believe fixing uniform rates of interest on loans, as done by some clearing house associations, was properly a function of a clearing house; but he stoutly maintained that the taxing of out-of-town checks was perfectly legitimate.

Referring to the public statement made by Mr. Vanderlip, Mr. Undermyer said that he "presumed you would apologize to the committee for anything contained in your statement that was untrue."

"I would, with pleasure," said Mr. Vanderlip.

The witness refused to concede that the clearing house should be subject to judicial review.

"Don't you see that under unscrupulous management a great deal of injustice would be done?" he was asked.

"The method of choosing the management insures scrupulous management," was the reply.

"In other words, you are the head of the clearing house now and are satisfied with your own management."

"I suppose so," commented Vanderlip.

WOMAN'S BIG UNDERTAKING

John Arbuckle's Sister to Administer Sugar King's $37,500,000 Estate.

New York, June 12.—A woman is to administer one of the largest estates on record.

She is Miss Christina Arbuckle, sister of John Arbuckle, the sugar and coffee merchant, who died on March 27 without having made a will.

The value of the great estate is placed, conservatively, at $37,500,000. Surrogate Ketcham decided that Miss Arbuckle is entitled to manage the estate, and granted her letters of administration.

MUST PAY FOR USING IDEA

Verdict of 2,000 Francs Against Dramatic Author for Employing M. Brevannes' Scenario.

Paris.—The farce entitled "Nos Femmes," which had its premiere at the Folies-Dramatiques in 1910 and ran for 147 performances, had what might be called its "derniere" before the Third Chamber of the Civil Tribunal.

M. Rolland Brevannes, author of a similar piece, "Un Breton de Femmes," sued MM. Filhol and Marcelin for plagiarism. The court put M. Marcelin "hors de cause," as he had worked only on the scenario given him by M. Filhol.

The latter, however, was condemned to pay 2,000 francs to M. Brevannes for having made use of an idea they had in common without consulting or indemnifying him.

Clock Struck Backward.

Chicago.—Because his grandfather's clock struck backward, Patrick Calhoun spent several days in a jail cell. Waking at 5 o'clock in the morning he heard the clock strike five, and decided he would sleep another hour. Half awake at six o'clock he heard the clock strike four, and turned over this time for two hours of rest. At eight o'clock he arose in wrath, as the clock was striking two. He stormed because his wife had let him miss morning mass. She called the police and Patrick was taken to jail.

After the arrest Mrs. Calhoun remembered she had cleaned the clock the day before and upon investigating noticed she had put the wheel which regulated the striking in backward.

MAN IS GIVEN HONEST CARD

Passport at Last Issued to New York Mechanic Arrested as Burglar Sixteen Times.

New York.—The first passport ever issued by the police department of New York was given to Ralph Fisher, an honest mechanic, who has been arrested 16 times during the last few weeks, charged with having burglar tools in his possession.

Fisher is a night worker employed by a company which repairs kitchen utensils in big hotels and restaurants. He receives many emergency calls during the night and has to take along his tools to make repairs.

Fisher told Police Commissioner Waldo that, in addition to having been arrested 16 times, he had been interrupted almost nightly by policemen and detectives, who mistook him for a burglar. All members of the police department have been notified of the issuance of the passport which Fisher will carry with him on his nocturnal errands.

No Morgan Art for Brooklyn.

New York.—Brooklyn will not exhibit any of the art treasures J. Pierpont Morgan is shipping to this country from Europe. This was made known in a letter received by Borough President Steers.

He had suggested to Mr. Morgan that if the Metropolitan museum could not display the art works adequately they could be taken care of by the institution museum. Mr. Morgan replied from Rome:

"I have already arranged with the Metropolitan museum to store my collection and I can not, therefore, take up the same question with anyone else so long as they continue to conform to their part of the contract."

TO DIG INTO MAN'S PAST

Yale University Expedition to Peru Will Try to Find Bones of the Ancients.

New Haven, Conn.—The next expedition to Peru, which will be made this year under the direction of Prof. Hiram Bingham of Yale, will not be geographical in the case of the last expedition, it was announced at Yale recently, but will concentrate its work largely in that region where the human bones were found under a glacial deposit which indicated a minimum age of 2,000 years.

It is believed that with a combination of geographical research and prospective new discoveries of human relics much light will be shed upon the age of man in South America. In connection with this investigation there will also be research in architectural remains of the Incas civilization and of the periods which preceded it.

AIRMEN FALL TO DEATH

A. T. Welch and Lieut Hazelhurst Die at Washington.

Aeroplane Dips as They Reach an Elevation of 100 Feet and Necke Are Broken.

Washington, June 12.—A. T. Welch of Brunswick, Ga., representing the Wright Biplane company, and Lieut. L. W. Hazelhurst of the Seventeenth Infantry, were dashed to death here when the biplane in which they were making an ascension crashed to the earth from an elevation of about 100 feet.

The aviator and his passenger had been in the air but three minutes when the accident occurred. He and Hazelhurst were just starting out on a climbing test. On the first round of the field they had reached an altitude of about 100 feet. Suddenly the machine dipped to one side and came to the ground with a crash, both men underneath. Death was instantaneous. When picked up it was found that the necks of both men had been broken.

The bodies of Hazelhurst and Welch were taken to the Walter Reid hospital.

Senator Martine promised to move for reconsideration if enough votes could be mustered to justify the action. Friends of General Wood claimed they had been promised enough support to defeat the proposition when it comes up again.

TRIES TO KILL CHILD

MURDERER ATTEMPTS ANOTHER CRIME ON WAY TO GALLOW.

Jan Ribarik Seizes Daughter and Chokes Her—Guard Fells Him With Iron Bar.

Washington, Pa., June 12.—Jan Ribarik, condemned to die and finally hanged upon the gallows, on the very threshold of the scaffold nearly added the blackest of all to his already merciless string of three brutal and useless murders.

He tried to strangle his young daughter Antonia as she pressed forward to kiss him good-by and would have done so had he not been felled by an iron bar in the hands of a keeper.

Ribarik was sentenced to die for the murders of Mr. and Mrs. Novak and Stephen Stanovj during a quarrel caused by the Novaks giving shelter to Antonia after her father had ordered her out of his home.

At the trial Antonia told all of the gruesome facts of the killing and her testimony was probably responsible for the sentence of death. When the verdict was announced Ribarik was almost beside himself with hatred and cursed his daughter because she would not perjure herself to clear him.

All during his imprisonment he maintained the same attitude and persistently refused to see Antonia when she called. Finally, about a week ago, the girl called in company with two evangelists and sang hymns in front of her father's cell as the ministers prayed. Suddenly the prisoner apparently collapsed and, trembling with emotion, voiced a plea of repentance and a supplication for forgiveness.

The girl embraced her father through the prison bars and left him, promising to return and kiss him good-by before he should be led to his doom.

Farmers' Biggest Money Maker

These are the very words one man used in telling us about his old reliable Saginaw Silo. He added: "It was a farmer owning only 20 acres, even if I had to borrow the money, I would have a Saginaw Silo." The Saginaw preserves your silage perfectly—gives you, at one-half to one-fifth the old cost, an abundance of fresh-building ration for your fattening stock and your dairy cows all through the winter. The Saginaw is built to do this for a lifetime. It is as solid as a mass of granite. It can never blow down. Come in and let us tell you about the Saginaw's patented Inner Anchoring Hoop and the All-Steel Door Frame. No one else allowed to use them. Let us also tell you about the wonderful

Whirlwind Silo Filler

Guaranteed to cut and elevate more fodder in a given time than any other filler made. It sheds as well. Have you read that wonderful money saving facts "The Modern Way of Saving Money on the Farm"? We have a free copy for you. Call and ask.
